

Start your own business as a Leadership Trainer!

We help you to succeed!

You have a solid management background e.g. been CEO, Head of Sales, Self Employed.

With base in Sweden we are in a strong expansion phase and are now searching for the right candidates to establish authorized franchisees markets around the world. Our Motivational Leadership (ML) training programs works in all sizes of organizations: From small companies to multi-national giants like IKEA.

Opportunity 1

You have been living with all the various challenges associated with a managerial position and now would like to build up your own Leadership training business. Focus is on developing your client company and its employees in order for them to succeed professionally with balance in life.

Opportunity 2

Successful Leadership trainers may be offered the opportunity to build an organization with several licensees. Your business shall focus on developing an organization and its Licensees or employees in order for them to succeed as Leadership trainers.

BIZNIZ TOOLS (BT) is offering you and your market a complete new modern concept with result oriented methodology that is very well proven. Through our approach, we create lasting positive results for our client companies. Targeting, blended learning, spaced repetitions and work in a Plan of Action over a longer period of time are important components of the program. It really works!

We are looking for you who want to work with professional leadership training and

- seeks a new career challenge and have high economic goals
- have the courage and stamina to build up an organization as your own business
- have the ambition to train the trainer
- understand the importance of personal selling
- want a job that develop both yourself and others
- are outgoing and positive
- has a well-developed network of contacts in the business and / or the public sector
- are driven and self-motivated
- appreciate being part of an international organisation where we support and encourage each other

We offer comprehensive support, which includes:

- continuous training, transfer of know-how and experience
- ongoing advice and support
- certification in our leadership programs e.g. Motivational Leadership
- professional website with built-in CRM system
- inspiring international colleagues

Our "Made in Sweden" concept is proven to work and is appreciated by different multinational companies/nationalities.

By using our unique multi-sensory programs and methodology we can and do get leaders, managers and individuals to think and behave in more effective and productive ways. We don't just tell people ABOUT leadership and management, as many others do. As Leadership trainer you will actually help your customers to BECOME the person they want/need to be.

Send your application with CV and personal letter to info@bizniztools.com

For more info call: Lars Emnell, Helsingborg +46 70 722 28 02 or Lars-Göran Ottosson, Stockholm +46 708 44 14 14